be wanted.”
A.W. Tozer

10

Sabbath is an invitation
for intimate
conversation.

11

What may God
be wanting to discuss with you?

12

Sabbath is a
weekly dinner
date with Jesus,
a time set apart
when we give him our
undivided
attention.

13

Sabbath is a
special time
God anticipates
because he loves
you. How can you make time
different?

14

HE STANDS
AT THE DOOR,
KNOCKS, AND WAITS.

messages amidst
the static of life.

provides good
practice in
discernment.
Where do you
need clarity?

17

19

What are the
love letters God
is asking you
to pass on to someone today?

20

Think ahead
and consider
ways you can make time
meaningful and memorable.

21

What
metaphors?
Where is
serendipity?
How is God
wooing you
toward deeper
relationship?

22

RETURN
TO ME.
REST IN ME.
BE SAVED.

Isaiah 30:15

23

24

How has listening for God made a difference for
you or someone else?

25

Write down the
ways God is
afoot in your life
this week.

26

Our days are a collection of
moments that
make life
beautiful.
Practice
attentiveness
to beauty.

27

I WILL GUIDE YOU,
ADVISE YOU,
AND WATCH
OVER YOU.

Psalm 32:8

28

29

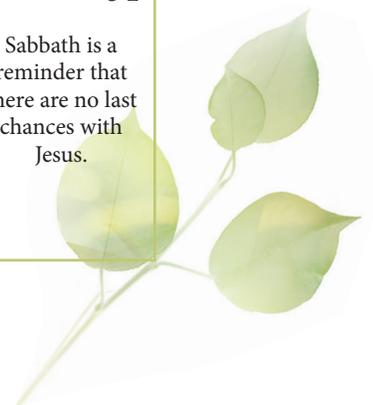

Clarity
isn't always instantaneous.

30

Persistence,
perseverance,
and practice
pay off. Give yourself
permission to begin again.

31

Sabbath is a reminder that
there are no last chances with Jesus.

“Collect the epistles God is sending like a scribe poised with an open notebook, jotting down the sacred echoes.”
