

December WINGS OF RESCUE

“The result of our waiting will be an awesome thing he will do for us when we trust him.” Page 201

1
What comes into our minds when we think about God is really the most important thing about us.
~A.W. Tozer

2
What is essential for inner peace during the Christmas season?

3
FOR THOSE WHO LOVE GOD, ALL THINGS WORK TOGETHER FOR GOOD.
Romans 8:28

4
Read Mark 3:1-6; Luke 13:10-17; Matthew 12:10

5
Jesus is determined not to allow you to place him in a tidy little box.

6
HE PULLS YOU OUT OF THE OCEAN OF HATE, THAT ENEMY CHAOS, THE VOID IN WHICH YOU ARE DROWNING.
Psalm 18 (The Message)

7
8
Assess the first week of Advent. Are you focused on what is essential? Or distracted by essentially useless activity?

9
Don't give up your resolve to rest when the season becomes chaotic. Persevere and trust Jesus for rescue.

10
When we are tired, we tend to revert to comfort and safety which often results in more restlessness.

11
God is near and working out the details.

12
13
Choose presence over presents. Is there a more meaningful present than being in God's presence?

14
Practice adoration and expect God's presence through fresh revelation.

15
Assess the second week of Advent. Where is God afoot in the details of your holiday activities?

16
Jesus is Sabbath. And Sabbath is finding rest in him.

17
HERE IS THE CALL FOR THE ENDURANCE OF THE SAINTS.
Revelation 14:10-13

18
Be the gift and not the product of guilt by asking this simple question: Is this opportunity to serve, give, and be present the best use of my talents, resources, and time?

19
MY THOUGHTS ARE NOT YOUR THOUGHTS, NEITHER ARE YOUR WAYS MY WAYS.
Isaiah 55:8-9

20
If Jesus is Sabbath, then the way to achieve peace isn't about doing more but resting in him.

21
Sabbath is a weekly boot camp for rescuing a tormented life.

22
Assess the third week of Advent. Are using time for what brings joy or using up time with feelings of guilt?

23
Peace comes not when God gives what I seek, but when I believe he will come because he loves me.

24
God waited for thousands of years before he sent his only Son.

25
Merry Christmas!!

26
Sabbath is a holy writ—his love letter to us once a week.

27
28
He is asking you to remember the Sabbath. Will you?

29
God cares about the details, because in the details, he reveals the depth of his love for us.

30
The details are why God wants us to wait for him in Sabbath.

31
HE REMEMBERS HIS COVENANT FOREVER.
Psalm 105:8

“Relinquishment of outcomes precedes the miracle he wants to do in and through us.” Page 202
